The 2nd ASEAN Youth Representatives in Experiencing the Philosophy of Sufficiency Economy

2018 Thailand

Introduction

For the 70-year reign of His Majesty the Late King Bhumibol Adulyadej ceaselessly dedicated his entire reign to improving his Thai people's lives for betterment and took the country out of several deadly turns with his wise counsel as the royal oath he gave during the coronation ceremony that "We shall reign with righteousness for the benefit and happiness of the Siamese people". His Majesty's wisdom and lifelong work will continue to be the beacon of hope that guides all Thais into a new dawn. Bestowed by His Majesty the Late King Bhumibol Adulyadej on the people of the Kingdom of Thailand, the Sufficiency Economy Philosophy (SEP) has now firmly taken root in Thai society. It has become the guiding philosophy for our country's development. On behalf of the Royal Thai Government, I strongly reaffirmed that the Government and people of Thailand follow in His Majesty's footsteps, carry on his royal legacies and also continue to actively promote SEP to the world, as Thailand's valuable contribution to the principles and practice of sustainable development.

As the torch of bearers of His Majesty's legacy for development, the Office of the Permanent Secretary, the Office of the Prime Minister shall continue actively promote SEP to the world, as Thailand's valuable contribution to the principles and practice of sustainable development by proceeding to promote and disseminate SEP preliminary to ASEAN youths as the seed for the changes and hopes for the future in the second year of international exchange program "the 2nd ASEAN Youth Representatives in Experiencing the Philosophy of Sufficiency Economy" (AY-REPSE 2018, Thailand) during 11-20 March 2018 in Thailand. In this second year, besides the youth representatives from 10 ASEAN countries but there are from two guested countries which are the Kingdom of Bhutan and the Democratic Socialist Republic of Sri Lanka invited to participate the program totally 70 youth representatives. 60 representatives from 10 ASEAN member countries and 10 representatives from the 2 guest countries are cordially invited to attend the program. This program shall provide the youth representatives from ASEAN countries and the guest countries with the precious opportunity to learn, practice and experience mainly focusing on the Philosophy of Sufficiency Economy through theory, site visit of the royal initiatives in central regions of Thailand, and participation in the related activities. Besides, it is also a good opportunity to launch a youth connectivity network on realizing the SEP guiding the way to sustainable development.

Project Objectives

1. To disseminate the royal grace of His Majesty the Late King Bhumibol Adulyadej and Her Majesty the Queen Sirikit of the King Rama IX in ceaselessly devotion improving Thai people's well-being and took the country out of several deadly turns with his wise counsel.
2. To create a mutual understanding and promote learning on the Royal Initiatives and the Philosophy of Sufficiency Economy as the life guidance leading to the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) to the ASEAN+2 (the Kingdom of Bhutan and the Democratic Socialist Republic of Sri Lanka) youth representatives.
3. To drive and launch on connectivity network of ASEAN+2 (the Kingdom of Bhutan and the Democratic Socialist Republic of Sri Lanka) youth in realizing the importance of working together to achieve the SDGs on the international level.
